

Dear Colleagues,

The Indian Association of Teachers of French (IATF North Zone) is organising a two day Regional Teachers Training workshop at JNU, New Delhi for college and university teachers and researchers of French in the Northern states of India. This workshop will be held on the 12th and 13th January 2018 in collaboration with Institut Français en Inde , Embassy of France in India, Goyal Publishers & Distributors Pvt. Ltd and Langers International Pvt. Ltd. The workshop is entitled:

« Enseigner le FLE à l'heure actuelle : nouvelles tendances pédagogiques »

(Teaching French as a foreign language : new perspectives)

The fundamental objective of this workshop is to enhance the teaching learning process of French as a foreign language and to provide inputs and strategies to teachers so as to help them bring out the necessary modifications in their pedagogical approach as well. There is a need for a proper interface between such recent trends in the field of French as a foreign language. Needless to say there is a great demand for foreign languages amongst young Indian students and professionals today.

All academic sessions will be conducted by eminent experts from Institut Français , Jawaharlal Nehru University , Delhi University and Shiv Nadar University .

Eligibility: All teachers teaching French in colleges and universities primarily and researchers in FLE in North India

Venue : Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi

Registration Fee: A registration fee of Rupees 500/- per participant will be collected at the venue of workshop.

Workshop timings : 9am sharp to 5 pm. (on 12th Jan) and 9.30 to 3.30pm (on 13th Jan)

Registration : 8 am onwards on 12th January

Please note that due to paucity of funds no TA/ DA will be paid to participants.
