As part of this festival, students will research a topic that unites India and France and showcase their findings – through different presentation forms. Through this collaborative exchange between students from both countries, the festival aims to deepen the friendship between India and France. Students will thus simultaneously engage and take forward the shared Indo-French values of innovation, creativity and partnership.

TWO PARTICIPATION FORMATS

- Schools for Indo-French friendship
- Schools with a global outlook

Format : “Schools for Indo-French friendship”

These schools:

- host other schools in the Inter-School French Festival held in their premises.
- work hard for the exposure of their students to the world and to new cultures.
- regularly organise or wish to organise student exchange programmes with France and with other foreign countries.
- have many students that participate in internationally recognised DELF examinations.

Format : “Schools with a global outlook”

These schools:

- organise the Inter-School French Festival for their own students in their premises.
- continue to provide a vision and outlook towards the world to their students, despite being situated in small cities with less access to transport facilities.
- continue to overcome the challenges and continue to promote foreign languages in their premises.

Schools will participate similarly in terms of team and infrastructure. Hosting will differ according to the format of the participating schools .
